Plan Receives National Award

The Island Savings Plan received national recognition for excellence from the National Association of Government Defined Contribution Administrators (NAGDCA) in September 2014.

The Plan received a 2014 Leadership Recognition Award for the National Save for Retirement Week campaign that was introduced at the Fall Benefits Fairs. The campaign was effective in encouraging employees to take action toward saving for retirement that promoted the NAGDCA theme of National Save for Retirement Week: It's closer than you think.

Seated: Kanoë Margol, Employee Member, Board of Trustees; Cynthia Akiyoshi, Board Staff, Dept. of Human Resources Development.

Review Your Beneficiary Election

Updating your beneficiary should not be an afterthought. It's important to choose a beneficiary who will receive your Plan account benefits in the event of your death. Review your beneficiary designation regularly, especially when there are changes in your personal situation, such as a marriage or divorce. Whenever necessary, update the information by logging in to your account online at: prudential.com/islandsavings.
